

Stephanie Childress

Stephanie Childress grew up in Idaho and attended Idaho public schools. While she thinks of herself as an English teacher at heart, she has worked in face to face settings and online teaching a variety of subjects, including Career Exploration, Study Skills, French, Art and Senior Project. She presently works part time for the Idaho State Department of Education as the Regional Coordinator for Advanced Opportunities; through this position she is able to work with every district north of Riggins to help them implement the state's four Advanced Opportunities programs.

Stephanie also works as the Academic Programs Manager for Idaho PTECH and teaches one class for North Idaho College.

Marni Wattam

Marni Wattam is currently the Special Education director and counselor at I-DEA, Idaho Distance Education Academy and has been a part of the school since July of 2011. Marni holds a PhD in Curriculum and Instruction with a focus on Special Education from the University of Idaho as well as a M.Ed in Counselor Education and Guidance Services from Montana State University

Lori Lodge

Lori Lodge is a native Idahoan and is a current college and career counselor. She previously spent 11 years at Timberline High School in Boise as a counselor in the College and Career Center.

Currently she is working as an adjunct instructor at Boise State University in the Counseling Education Department. Lori also does private counseling in Boise.

