

Employment Support Services*

ADULT AND YOUTH EDUCATION AND TRAINING PROGRAMS

Having trouble looking for and finding work? We can help. Adults and youth who meet certain criteria may be eligible for support with earning a GED; accessing training, education or tutoring resources; and finding employment.

TRADE ACT ASSISTANCE

Idahoans who lose their jobs due to layoffs or plant closures when a manufacturer shifts production to countries outside the U.S. may be eligible for retraining services and reemployment support.

VETERANS SERVICES

Find out what Priority of Service means and what kind of employment benefits are available to veterans and their families. Meet with one of several veteran representatives located throughout the state.

YOUTH SERVICES

Tutoring, alternative school offerings, summer employment, internships and apprenticeships, leadership development, mentoring, follow-up services and comprehensive guidance and counseling are available to eligible youth.

*Income and eligibility requirements apply.

Idaho Labor Laws

Idaho workers should know what to expect in the workplace. Learn what laws and safety requirements employers are required to follow including paying the minimum wage.

FARMWORKER SERVICES

Idaho is committed to ensuring farmworkers know what laws protect their rights to fair wages and working conditions.

IDAHO HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

Federal and state laws generally define discrimination as treatment of one employee differently from another on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, pregnancy, age, marital status, physical or mental disability or other personal characteristics. If you think you are the subject of discrimination, contact the Idaho Human Rights Commission.

Search Faster

Make finding a job a little quicker with public computers and FREE high-speed Internet at your local library.

Access all of these services and find your nearest local office at:

labor.idaho.gov/jobseeker

let's work.

OUR LIFE'S WORK IS THE WORK OF OTHERS

We do everything we can to help people find the training, support and guidance they need to find work; whether it's blue collar or white collar, steel toes or wing tips.

We take it personally and always go for our personal best.

We do life-changing work that empowers everyone.

It's about our people getting in touch with your people so everyone can find the best people. We do what we do for a living so others can do what they do for a living.

WE ARE THE FORCE
BEHIND THE WORKFORCE

The Idaho Department of Labor
C.L. "Butch" Otter, Governor • Kenneth D. Edmunds, Director

The Idaho Department of Labor is an equal opportunity employer and service provider. Reasonable accommodations are available upon request. Dial 711 for Idaho Relay Service.

This publication is produced by the Idaho Department of Labor which is funded at least in part by federal grants from the U.S. Department of Labor. Costs associated with this publication are available by contacting the Idaho Department of Labor.

1-81-195 Rev. 5/2014

Job seeker services

IDAHO
DEPT. OF LABOR

let's work.

labor.idaho.gov/jobseeker

If you're looking for work or starting a new career, let us show you what Idaho employers are looking for, how to find education and training and where the unexpected places are to look for work. Find out if you qualify for financial aid programs or government-sponsored employment support. Attend job search workshops, build an electronic résumé and create an online searchable profile. Access thousands of job listings, learn what to say or ask during your next interview and how to network effectively - all at no cost to you.

.....
Job Listings
.....

Create an online profile employers can search, and view job openings by city, county or occupation. Sign up for instant job alerts.

.....
Job Search Workshop
.....

Take our job search workshop online, in person or download the entire guide to read on your own. Chart your career path, set some goals, develop a work plan and learn the secrets of a good interview. Discover the most current and effective ways to use the Internet and social media to find a job.

.....
Job Clubs, Professional Networking Groups
.....

Network with other people looking for work. Learn what employers are looking for from human resource professionals and guest speakers representing new and emerging industries.

.....
Resource Center
.....

Our 25 local offices offer personal computers for word processing, résumé templates, Internet access and career planning along with fax, phones, copiers and information about community services.

.....
Check Your Skills
.....

Test your work-related skills in numerous software applications. Access more than 1,200 assessment tests for skills like critical thinking, medical billing and coding, typing, ten-key and more. Work on your computer skills with online tutorials available for Microsoft Office products.

.....
Wages, Occupations and Economic Information
.....

Know what kind of compensation package - wages and benefits - to expect, accept or request from prospective employers.

.....
Volunteer, AmeriCorp Opportunities
.....

Serve Idaho encourages volunteerism and community service among private, public and nonprofit organizations and agencies. Keep your skills current and stay connected to the workplace. Or apply to AmeriCorps and work in an intensive service position, learn valuable skills, contribute to lasting change and earn money for education.

.....
Career Planning
.....

Use Idaho's Career Information System to explore career opportunities, find educational programs, scholarships and financial aid. Review job descriptions and educational requirements for hundreds of occupations.

.....
Unemployment Insurance
.....

Unemployment insurance is funded by taxes most employers pay on a quarterly basis and is intended to partially replace wages for people who have lost jobs through no fault of their own. File for unemployment insurance online and receive benefits electronically.

