Idaho employers, educational institutions, state and federal agencies and community resource providers are all invited to participate in the Treasure Valley Community Resource and Career Fair, scheduled for Nov. 5-6 from 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. at the Idaho Center in Nampa.

Booth space is being provided by the Idaho Center for free. Vendors will be provided with a table and chairs for displays and materials, however additional costs may be incurred for extra convention services such as electrical service or Internet connections.

Set-up begins Nov. 4 from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. and if necessary, set-up time will also be available on Nov. 5 from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m.

Private businesses must have a current job listing posted with the Idaho Department of Labor during the event in order to participate.

Seminars will be held throughout the day on topics ranging from volunteerism to the many types of support services available in the Treasure Valley. If you are interested in presenting, please let us know.

The Treasure Valley Community Resource and Career Fair is co-sponsored by the Idaho Center and the Idaho Department of Labor. With your help and participation, this will be a very successful event for everyone. Booth space is limited, so please register online by Oct. 29 at:
