

Lori Lodge

Lori Lodge is a native Idahoan and is a current college and career counselor. She previously spent 11 years at Timberline High School in Boise as a counselor in the College and Career Center.

Currently she is working as an adjunct instructor at Boise State University in the Counseling Education Department. Lori also does private counseling in Boise.

Melissa Miller

Melissa Miller Majored in Communications at BYU-I and graduated in the spring of 2014. Following graduation, she worked as a staff writer at Progressive Publishing, a national agricultural magazine based in Jerome, Idaho. After several friends recommended she look into the Near Peer Program, she was hired in July of this year. This is her first year in the College Mentor Program and she is loving it.

