

Rick Hartshorn

Rick has been a middle school counselor at New Plymouth Middle school for 20 years at the end of this school year. He was previously a medic in the Air Force for 9 years and retired from the Air National Guard with 21.5 years of service. He has done internships at the elementary, high school and middle school levels and chose the middle school. Rick says, "I really enjoy working with the students in the formative years of middle school. Helping students explore different careers is one of my favorite things to do."

Jenni Kimball

Jenni Kimball is a College/Career Counselor at Columbia High School in Nampa. Before coming to Columbia, Jenni was a counselor at Eagle Academy, an alternative High School in the West Ada School District. Jenni began her career as a social studies teacher in New Orleans, Louisiana where she taught 7th and 8th grade. While earning her Master's in Counseling, Jenni worked for the TRiO Upward Bound program at Caldwell High School, advising low income, first generation students through the college process. Jenni is also a member of the TVEP Area Four Committee and the Advanced Opportunities, PSAT, and SAT Coordinator at her school.

Jennifer Zaike

Jennifer Zaike is currently a counselor at Mountain Home Junior High, a school that serves nearly 600 7th and 8th grade students. This is Jennifer's fourth year as a school counselor. She received her Master of Arts in School Counseling from Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington, and her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Washington in Seattle. Jennifer's goal as school counselor is to align a program with ASCA National Model, and someday earn a RAMP designation.
