

Farmworker services

IDAHO
DEPT. OF LABOR

Migrant and seasonal farmworkers have access to many employment services at all Idaho Department of Labor's offices throughout the state, including:

- An online system to register for work, search for jobs, file complaints and apply for unemployment insurance benefits.
- Job referrals.
- Job search workshops – available in Spanish at select offices.
- Career guidance.
- Job training information.
- Resource center with computers, resume templates, internet access, career planning software, Idaho's JobScape, newspapers, self-help books, videos, mail drop, fax, phones and copiers to use in job searches and unemployment insurance-related activities.
- Various forms and documents in English and Spanish.
- Information on community services.
- Labor market information.
- Workforce consultants.
- Interpretation services available if necessary.

Find a list of farmworker outreach specialists at labor.idaho.gov/Job-Seekers/Farmworker-Services/.

For more information or services, contact your nearest Idaho Department of Labor office at labor.idaho.gov/officedirectory.

labor.idaho.gov |

The Idaho Department of Labor's employment services programs are funded by the U.S. Department of Labor for SFY25 as part of Wagner-Peyser Act grants (72%) and state/nonfederal funds (28%) totaling $8,497,701. The Idaho Department of Labor is an equal opportunity employer and service provider. Reasonable accommodations are available upon request. Dial 711 for Idaho Relay Service. November 2024

A proud partner of the americanjobcenter

network